J. Discretionary Disclosures.

1. The Kendall Family Superannuation Fund held various shares in corporations at the return date. No holding was more than 10% unless already declared.
2. I believe I became a property developer in or about December 2021 when a development application and a subdivision application were submitted in relation to properties in which I have an interest through an Investment Trust. One of these applications was subsequently withdrawn now resulting in me not being a property developer as defined.
