General Conditions

1. Performers must ensure that they do not behave in a dangerous, noisy, offensive, illegal, immoral or otherwise objectionable manner.
2. Wagga Wagga City Council reserves the right to reject any application that does not fit within the scope of this family-friendly community event.
3. Children under the age of 16-years must be supervised at all times by a parent and/or caregiver.
4. Participants are considered amateurs and will not receive income. No participant will be able to put their 'case' out to receive coins/cash (income) for performances
5. Recorded music is protected by the Australian Copyright Act (1968). Performers may need to take out licences to have live music or to play recorded music at the festival.
6. Performers are obligated under the Work Health and Safety Act (2011) to manage the health and safety aspects of their performance. Compliance information may be obtained at: www.safework.nsw.gov.au
7. Performers must take all reasonable precautions to prevent loss, damage or injury to any other party or property.
8. Performers wishing to bring electrical equipment on the stage, including power leads, must have them checked and tagged as tested in-line with Work Health and Safety Regulation (2017).
9. All potential hazards must be reported to Council's Youth Week 2023 team in a timely manner.
10. Performers are responsible for the care of equipment and personal belongings brought to the event. Wagga Wagga City Council is not liable for the loss or theft on any electrical equipment or personal items.
11. Performers consent to Wagga Wagga City Council taking images and recordings of performers and their performances during and after the festival, for promotion and reporting of this festival in the media.
