

FUSION BOTANICAL

Wagga Wagga City Council and our long-term Cultural Partners, the Multicultural Council of Wagga Wagga, are inviting expressions of interest from volunteers to be part of this years' dedicated program of traditional and contemporary song, dance and performance from around the world on Saturday 19 October 2024.

Expressions of interest will be accepted until 5PM Friday 16 August 2024. No incomplete or late applications will be considered. Submitting an application does not automatically guarantee your inclusion in the festival program.

To ensure that as many members of the community, as possible, are provided with the opportunity to showcase their culture, all performances are restricted to ten (10) minutes only inclusive of the emcee's warm introduction.

Applicants are strongly advised to read the General Conditions prior to completing and submitting their application. Applicants will be notified by email of the result of their submission by Monday 16 September 2024.

PROPOSAL

Required fields are denoted by an asterisk ()*

1. Describe the type of cultural performance to be showcased at FUSION BOTANICAL (e.g. musical performance, dance or martial arts demonstration) *

FOR EXAMPLE:

'The Himalayan Cultural Troupe presents classical cultural dances from Bhutan and Myanmar. The theme of the performances are the daily lives of traditional farmers and their connection to land, water and sky.'

2. Total number of people participating in the performance. *

3. Please list the name and age of all the people participating in the performance.*

4. Please list the stage equipment you will be providing for the production of your performance.*

Performers will have access to the following technical equipment to assist them with the production of their performance. If performers require additional electrical equipment, including instruments they will have to supply their own. There will be no soundchecks.

- ❖ Sound system with operator;
- ❖ 3 x microphones with 5 (five) metre leads;
- ❖ 3 x microphone stands; and
- ❖ 1 x DI input for guitar and/or keyboard.

Performers must provide the festival organiser with a copy of the backing track (music) to accompany their performance on MP3 file format only. No other format will be accepted.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. Performers must ensure that they do not behave in a dangerous, noisy, offensive, illegal, immoral or otherwise objectionable manner.
2. Festival management reserves the right to reject any application that does not fit within the scope of this family-friendly community event.
3. Children under the age of 16-years of age must be supervised at all times by a parent and/or caregiver.
4. Recorded music is protected by the Australian Copyright Act (1968). Performers may need to take out licences to have live music or to play recorded music at the festival.
5. Performers are obligated under the Work Health and Safety Act (2011) to manage the health and safety aspects of their performance. Compliance information may be obtained at: www.safework.nsw.gov.au
6. Performers must take all reasonable precautions to prevent loss, damage or injury to any other party or property.
7. Performers wishing to bring electrical equipment on the stage, including power leads, must have them checked and tagged as tested in-line with Work Health and Safety Regulation (2017).
8. All potential hazards must be reported to the festival management team in a timely manner.
9. Performers are responsible for the care of equipment and personal belongings brought to the event. Festival management is not liable for the loss or theft on any electrical equipment or personal items.
10. Performers consent to festival management taking images and recordings of performers and their performances during and after the festival, for promotion and reporting of this festival in the media.
