

VICTORY MEMORIAL GARDENS

Baylis Street & Morrow Street, Wagga Wagga NSW 2650

The Victory Memorial Gardens were established in 1925 as a tribute to those who fought and died in the First World War. Thomas Kerr, designer of the Sydney Botanic Gardens, was chosen to create this tribute which is located on the banks of the Wollundry lagoon in the heart of Wagga Wagga.

The garden's feature a mix of open lawns, planted garden beds, water features a playground and stage. Established trees throughout the site provide shade to most areas. This is a popular garden with visitors throughout the year.

Main event areas	Typical uses	Capacity (estimate)	Facilities
Central lawn area (2,000 sq. m) with stage (84 sq. m)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Music festivals • Markets • Community events • Food + beverage festivals • Outdoor cinema • Ceremonies 	5,000	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Structures – stage (12m x 7m) servicing the central lawn area, barbecue shelter • Power – multiple single-phase supplies spread throughout the gardens, three-phase supplies at the main stage and north east corner of garden • Water – six tap points throughout the gardens • Toilets – adjacent to park area • Playground • Parking – off street spaces only

Environmental considerations:

City centre location – amplified music could disturb residents.

Access details:

Vehicle access to gardens from Morrow Street. Site boundaries are unfenced with pedestrian access from all sides except the north which borders the Wollundry Lagoon.

Usage restrictions:

This site contains numerous memorials, consider precautions to minimise damage when using as part of an event space.

Hours: Sunday to Saturday, 7am – 11pm.

Licensing/DA's:

wagga.nsw.gov.au/da

Fees and charges:

wagga.nsw.gov.au/fees

Booking/Information contact:

wagga.nsw.gov.au/bookings

City of Wagga Wagga